Trump Winery Celebrates Major Wins in International Wine Competition

Charlottesville, VA – July 2024 – Trump Winery is proud to announce that four of our exceptional wines have been awarded top honors at the prestigious Critics Challenge International Wine & Spirits Competition. Renowned for its rigorous judging standards, this esteemed event has recognized the outstanding quality and craftsmanship of our wines.

Founded in 2004 by wine critic and journalist Robert Whitley, the Critics Challenge International Wine & Spirits Competition is highly regarded in the wine industry. The competition's double-blind format ensures unbiased assessments by a panel of esteemed wine and spirits critics, bloggers, and beverage journalists.

Following the tradition of excellence, our 2017 Sparkling Reserve has once again earned the highest honor, being named Best Vintage Brut and receiving Platinum with 94 points. Rich Cook, a noted critic, praises it as "a refreshing and vibrant Brut with tart fruit flavors and a lively acidity that leads to a crisp, dry finish. Its straightforward, clean profile makes it an excellent choice for any occasion. Classy! 94."

Our Blanc de Blanc has been honored with the title of Best Blanc de Blanc, receiving Gold with 93 points. This accolade highlights the outstanding craftsmanship of our sparkling program, showcasing elegance that is truly remarkable.

An exceptional Bordeaux-style blend, New World Reserve, has been awarded Gold with 91 points. This wine is celebrated for its rich layers of dark fruit and well-integrated tannins, promising to age gracefully and develop even more complexity over time.

The vibrant and aromatic Viognier has earned a Gold award with 90 points. It is recognized for its smooth texture and balanced acidity, making it an absolute pleasure to drink. This wine perfectly captures the essence of our commitment to quality and innovation.

"These prestigious awards reflect the dedication and expertise of our team at Trump Winery," said Eric Trump, owner of Trump Winery. "Our commitment to quality and innovation drives us to produce outstanding wines that elevate our brand and the Virginia wine industry. This recognition reinforces our position as leaders in the market and motivates us to continue delivering exceptional products to our customers."
